

Triton Lillestrøm seeks Elite Swimming Coach

Triton Lillestrøm is one of Norway's largest swim clubs with 2400 members and offers swimming and triathlon. The club is situated Norway, 15 minutes drive outside of Oslo. The club is in a good development. We have a growing amount of members and are proud of our members which perform on an international level, as well as Regional and National level. The club has a full-time club manager, three full-time coaches and 7 full-time employees in the swimming school, as well as 60 part time swimming coaches and instructors. We are actively cooperating with the national team management and other clubs. The main goal of our club is that we will be the most attractive and improving sports club in our region.

The club's Elite Coach will resign from his position in October 2021. We therefore look for an experienced, knowledgeable and committed coach who wishes to bring Triton to the next level and “make waves” in Norwegian swimming in the coming years.

We hope the employment to start from September or October 2021.

The main tasks for the position are:

- Daily coaching responsibility for the club's best group, as well as attending competitions and training camps
- Administrative tasks related to training, competition and training camps
- Elite coach reports to the General Manager

Desired qualifications:

- Experience as a swim coach at a high national or international level.
- The ability to motivate and inspire swimmers to reach their full potential.
- Being a positive role model for swimmers, parents, and associates.
- Cooperative and respectful communication style with swimmers, parents and co-workers.
- Strong background in competitive swimming, preferably as a head coach and with documented education.
- Strong core values that include respect, trust and integrity.
- Good English skills – written and oral and the will to learn Norwegian.

We offer an exciting and challenging position in a club with high activity and ambitious goals.

We can also offer competitive conditions in a solid club.

If you want to be part of the strong Triton coaches team, please send us your application, including resumé. The application deadline is August the 10th 2021.

Applications with Resume should be sent to club manager Marcel Rosenberg by e-mail. If you have any question, don't hesitate to take contact:

Marcel Rosenberg, club manager: marcel@tritonlillestrom.no / mobile: (+47) 98035597.

We look forward to hearing from you.
